

BY-LAWS OF
THE KOREAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY IN AMERICA

(Revised on February 6, 2022; Effective August 31, 2022)

Article 1. Executive Board Meetings

- Section 1. Executive Board Meetings shall be called at the discretion of the President with at least one (1) week written notice provided to all members by the Executive Director. Executive sessions of the Board may be held, on occasion, for the purpose of discussing issues involving personnel or other confidentiality matters.
- Section 2. There shall be at least one (1) Board Meeting between Annual Meetings.
- Section 3. Upon petition by at least one third of the Executive Board members to the Executive Director, a special meeting of the Executive Board shall be scheduled within three (3) weeks time.
- Section 4. The Executive Board may render decisions by electronic voting.
- Section 5. No less than three (3) days prior to scheduled Board Meetings, any documents to be viewed at the forthcoming meeting and the agenda shall be distributed to all Board members by the Executive Director. However, when the Executive Director cannot perform this task, an Executive Board member, whom the President or the Executive Director appoints, can substitute the role.

Article 2. Membership Dues

- Section 1. The annual dues for membership categories shall be determined by the Executive Board.
- Section 2. The membership dues are for a calendar year.

Article 3. Annual Meetings

- Section 1. A registration fee may be assessed for participants at the Annual Meeting and other Conferences of the Society. The fee shall be set by the Executive Board and the membership shall be notified by the Executive Director.
- Section 2. During each Annual Meeting, there shall be a Business Meeting open to all members. Included in the meeting will be the announcement of election results, a budget report, and a report on the Society's publications and the Annual Meeting. The membership will be able to raise issues with the leadership of the Society.
- Section 3. Program Committee. The President shall appoint the Program Committee Chair for the Annual Meeting subject to ratification by the Executive Board. The Chair shall serve a term of two (2) years. The Chair is a member of the Annual Meeting "management team" and is expected to not only assist in the strategic planning phase, but also the on-site operational and implementation phase of the meetings. The Committee has duties as follows:
1. Organize the substantive portion of the Annual Meeting. The Program Committee Chair carries out various tasks for the Annual Meeting by working closely with the President to determine the format and number of presentations organize panel sessions, devise a schedule, and to generally ensure that the Annual Meeting flows smoothly.

2. Present a verbal report at the first meeting of the Executive Board held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting.
3. Provide a progress report for the Mid-Year Board Meeting (typically due April 15), and a final report by October 15.
4. Set up panels on behalf of KOSCA at the annual ASC/ACJS meetings, and apprising the Board of these activities.

Article 4. Procedure

Section 1. Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the procedure of the Society during all general and committee meetings, unless otherwise designated.

Article 5. Nominations and Election for Vice President

Section 1. Nominations. The Nomination Committee shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Executive Board. The Constitution and By-laws Committee Chair will also be a member of the Nomination Committee. The Nomination Committee Chair shall serve a term of two (2) years. The Nomination Committee shall oversee development of a slate of Vice President. It shall be the responsibility of the Nomination Committee to prepare a memorandum outlining the procedures the Committee followed in obtaining nominations and recommending a slate of candidates to the Executive Board. This memorandum, the list of those nominated, and the preferred candidates shall be presented at the Board Meeting for approval by the Executive Board. The Board is to review, adjust when necessary, and approves a slate of candidates during the nomination period.

1. Voting members in good standing for both the current or immediately previous calendar years shall be notified, and invited to submit additional nominations one (1) month prior to closing nominations.
2. Candidates for Vice President can be nominated by him/herself or other KOSCA members. Once a list of Vice President candidates is prepared, the Nomination Committee shall provide the Executive Board with a list of the candidates and prepare for ballots.
3. No seated member of the Nominations Committee can be nominated for the Vice President. Those nominated for office must agree to the nomination (the Chair of the Nominations Committee should contact nominees in advance of the Annual Meeting to determine their willingness to run), must be active members in good standing at the time of the nomination, and must have been active members in good standing for at least one (1) year prior to nomination.
4. The final slate, along with brief biographical information and a statement from each candidate is distributed to the membership electronically. The membership should be given at least two (2) weeks to submit their ballots via an online secret ballot voting platform. The ballots are to be counted by the Nominations Committee.

- Section 2. Voting. All voting members in good standing at the time at which ballots are distributed shall be entitled to vote. Voting shall be by online secret ballot. Tied elections shall be resolved by a run-off election. Ballots will be distributed to all voting members in good standing for both the current and immediately past calendar years. Persons who have not yet paid their dues for the current year shall receive a statement to this effect along with the ballot. The statement shall say that they are not members in good standing and may not vote in the current election unless dues are paid before ballots are counted.
- Section 3. Election Procedures. The election shall be by ballot distributed electronically at least three (3) weeks prior to the Annual meeting of the Society with return date specified by the Executive Board. Candidates for Vice-President-elect receiving the majority of votes cast shall be elected. In the event no person receives this plurality, a run-off election will be held between the two (2) candidates who received the most votes. If the candidate with the next highest number of votes wishes to be on the Executive Board and/or to serve as a Chair of any standing committees a priority will be given to the person.

Article 6. Disbursements

- Section 1. The Executive Director, with the approval of the President, oversees the disbursement of Society funds in accordance with the Board approved annual budget.
- Section 2. The Treasurer maintains accurate financial records and explains the budget status to the Executive Board members in the spring and fall. The Treasurer answers questions about the budget from the Board members at any time.
- Section 3. The Treasurer presents an annual financial report and explains the budget to members each year at the Annual Meeting. The Treasurer answers questions about budget from members at any time.

Article 7. Fellows

- Section 1. The title of Fellow is available to members in good standing who have, in the opinion of the Board, achieved distinction in criminology and/or criminal justice and have complied with such standards as are determined by the Executive Board. Fellow status shall be announced each year at the Annual Meeting and the candidates will be acknowledged by the Society with the presentation of a Certificate at the Annual Meeting. No more than two (2) Fellows shall be designated annually, and each shall be elected by the Executive Board.

Article 8. Divisions

- Section 1. Two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of those present at any meeting of the Executive Board is required for the establishment of a new Division. The Board may create a Division provided that (a) the Division represents an active and functionally unitary interest of a group of members, (b) its proposed objectives fall within the scope of those specified in the Society's Constitution, (c) its membership is not restricted on any bases other than interests and Society membership, and (d) the establishment of any new Division is not inimical to the objectives of the Society or any other Division already established. Divisions may use a distinct name, provided they append to it the phrase: "A Division of The Korean Society of Criminology in America".

Section 2. A petition for the formation of a new Division shall include in its prefatory statement the following: a statement of the proposed name and purpose of the Division, relevant evidence that the petitioners "represent an active and functionally unitary interest of a group of members", the names of the member or members sponsoring the petition or speaking for the petitioners and a statement that the individual petitioners ask for and will accept membership in the Division if it is established. The names of the petitioners should be followed by their KOSCA mailing address to assist in the unambiguous identification of the signers. The petition shall be transmitted to the Executive Director with the designation of some individuals who will speak for the petitioners in further communications. The Executive Board shall determine at its next regular meeting that the petition conforms to the technical requirements of the Rules. If it finds the petition in order, it shall invite the membership to comment in writing to the Board within the next 90 days. At a subsequent meeting, the Board shall consider the petition on its merits, together with supplementary materials and comments, and shall by a two-thirds (2/3) vote either approve or reject the petition. If the petitioners choose, they may submit a statement amplifying the petition to make clear why they seek Division status. Following favorable action by the Executive Board, a new Division is constituted when it holds its first business meeting at the Annual Meeting.

Article 9. Award Creation and Criteria Alterations

Section 1. The creation of new awards and/or adjustment of current award criteria becomes effective when approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Board. Award criteria carry the procedural weight of By-Laws.

Section 2. Society Awards. The Award Committee is responsible for developing a list of nominees for annual KOSCA awards created by the Society. The Award Committee shall serve a term of two (2) years. The Committee Chair shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Board. The Chair shall serve a term of two (2) years.

1. The Committee should develop a list of nominees. The Committee should request documentation from the nominees; at the very least, obtain a vitae and a brief statement as to why the individuals should be considered to receive the award.
2. The Chair of the Award Committee should provide the Board with a - report that lists those nominated (in order of merit), a single nominee for the award, and an explanation of the general procedures used to reach that decision. The report should include a statement identifying the main reasons for the recommendations for granting the award. Generally, a copy of the vitae of the Committee's single nominee should also be included in the materials sent to the Board.

3. Only individuals, not institutions, shall be considered as candidates for any award.
 4. The Award Committee Chair is to ensure that individuals are not being considered for awards they have already received.
 5. The Board will give due consideration to the Committee's nominations for each award, although the Board is not bound by the slate or the nominee of the Committee. If the Board rejects the nominee, the Award Committee may be asked to suggest another nominee. The Executive Board may decide not to give certain awards in any given year.
 6. Current members of the Executive Board (except the Immediate Past President) shall be ineligible to receive any awards of the Society, including selection as a Fellow, during their term in office.
 7. Members of the award committee are not eligible to receive that said award.
 8. The Board encourages all Divisions to submit nominees to the Award Committee.
 9. The President formally notifies award recipients.
